

Benjamin Lamb Biography

Ben studied medicine in Cambridge and London and is currently working as a Clinical Research Fellow, undertaking a PhD at the Centre for Patient Safety and Service Quality at Imperial College London. Ben's main research interest is improving multidisciplinary cancer teams, and he has written and presented work on decision making, non-technical skills, and leadership in MDTs. Other interests include urology and quality in healthcare. Outside work, Ben lives in north London with his wife and baby daughter, and considers himself a very amateur gardener.
